

Dear Valued Customer,

Welcome to Rumsey Electric. You are very important to us and we are very pleased to have the privilege of becoming a valued business partner.

Being employee owned, ISO certified, and in business for over 110 years only matters if we can exceed your expectations each and every day. The team at Rumsey understands this and can help solve your most demanding electrical needs. We field the best, most experienced team in the tri-state area and are privileged to be considered your full-line, full-service electrical supplier of choice.

Rumsey has unique capabilities across a wide range of solutions and industries:

- Electrical Distribution: Full-service electrical wholesaler to the Construction, Industrial End-User, OEM, Institutional, and Commercial market segments.
- Utility Sales: Supplier of products and services to Investor Owned Utilities, Electrical Cooperatives, and Municipalities across the region.
- Relay and Power Systems: Provider of protective relay, packaged power, and engineering solutions to Utilities and large power users.
- Lighting Systems: National accounts lighting to retailers nationwide.

We offer a deep bench of specialists with a wealth of experience in automation, motor control lighting, switchgear, supplies, substations, control houses, power delivery systems, and utility relays. We are the area's exclusive authorized distributor for Rockwell Automation / Allen-Bradley.

Our full-line stocking, sourcing, and delivery capabilities enable us to meet your most demanding needs with next day delivery across the trading area. Our 135,000 square foot central distribution facility in Conshohocken, PA and twelve locations means we are always close by and ready to meet your needs.

We are confident that you will not only find that Rumsey offers quality products at competitive prices, but a new valued partner that is focused on your success. For more information, please contact us or visit our website at www.rumsey.com.
